

TENTATIVE RULINGS

FOR: April 2, 2019

The Court may exercise its discretion to disregard a late filed paper in law and motion matters. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.1300(d).)

Unlawful Detainer Cases – Pursuant to the restrictions in Code of Civil Procedure section 1161.2, no tentative rulings are posted for unlawful detainer cases and appearances are required.

Court Reporting Services – The Court does not provide official court reporters in proceedings for which such services are not legally mandated. Parties are responsible for either making the appropriate request in advance or arranging for their own private court reporter. Go to <http://napacountybar.org/court-reporting-services/> for information about local private court reporters. Attorneys or parties must confer with each other to avoid having more than one court reporter present for the same hearing.

Special Note--Because of the court holiday on Monday, the Court is unable to field telephone calls for requests for oral argument. For this reason, appearances will be allowed for the posted court hearings without notifying the Court, provided a party notifies all other parties today (Friday) that the party intends to appear and argue. If notice of intent to appear has not been given to all parties, no oral argument will be permitted and the tentative ruling will become the Court's ruling.
